

Nusantara Agro Export

Connecting Indonesia's Finest Agricultural Products to the Global Market.

COMPANY PROFILE

ABOUT US

Nusantara Agro Export is an Indonesian trading company connecting high-quality Indonesian agricultural products with international buyers.

We work with trusted producers across Indonesia to deliver reliable products, professional communication, and sourcing solutions tailored to each buyer's requirements.

Our current focus is Indonesian palm and coconut sugar — available in powder and liquid form — for markets across Asia Pacific and the Middle East.

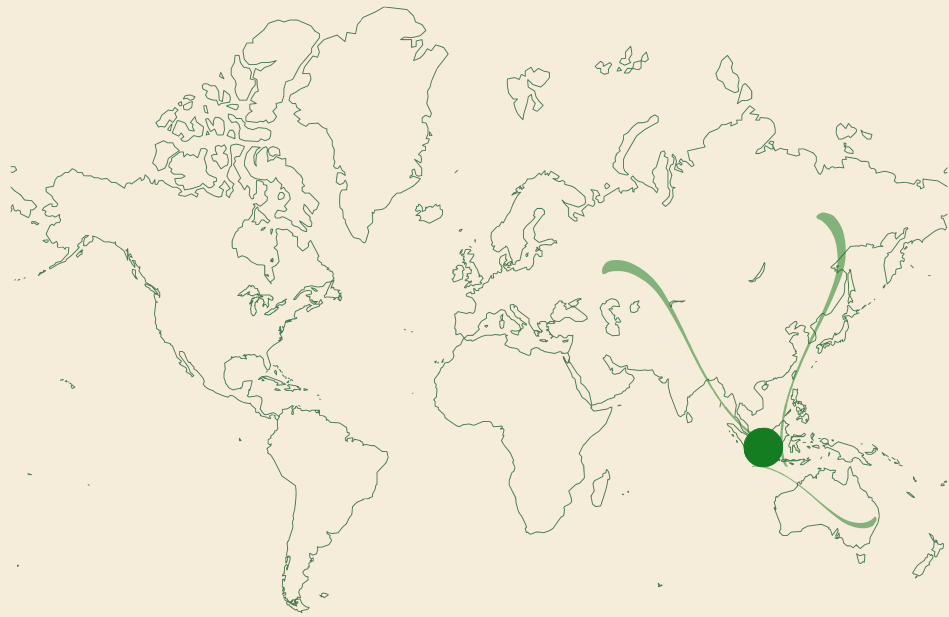

As the exporter of record, we handle documentation and shipping so buyers deal with one accountable partner from order to delivery.

VISION & MISSION

Vision

To become a trusted global trading partner in delivering high-quality Indonesian agricultural products to international markets while creating sustainable value for buyers, suppliers, and local communities.

Mission

To connect international buyers with reliable and high-quality agricultural products from Indonesia.

To build long-term business relationships based on trust, transparency, and professionalism.

To provide reliable sourcing solutions, competitive products, and responsive customer service.

To support Indonesian suppliers in expanding their products to global markets.

To continuously improve our services and contribute to the sustainable growth of Indonesia's agricultural export industry.
